

Balancing Idiots

The Idiots are Winning is out on December 4th, this is the title of James Holden new album out on Border Community. Very excited to hear this. James has been blowing minds left and right these last few years, so I am stoked.

Speaking of blowing minds Florida friend Jimmy Van M has a three disk mixed monster out now on Balance (10) that is. This is real an amazing set of disks while still keeping his deep dark progressive sound he stays fresh with perfect blend of minimal electro and dark progressive tunes. He also gives us a peak into his more intimate bedroom with tunes ranging from everything Cocteau Twins to Ellen Allien & Apparat and Djuma Soundsystem. Got love florida,
