

Goodbye Fire Station

After three years and a thousand tracks, we're hitting the wrap-it-up button on Artwalk at Central Fire Station. Join us one more time before we relocate. We'll have all the usual fodder we're famous for: vinyl mixing, free CDs, a new drunk hype man every month, dancing babies and you. Dr. Strangelove, Ted Lane and myself will bang it out Wednesday from 5-9 on the corner of Ocean and Adams in Downtown Jack-son-ville.
