

Link Round Up

PÄR GRINDVIK - SINISTER from adcr on Vimeo.

I've been meaning to get a link round up as of late so here are some picks:

First up two Ego Killer mix faves. Monomute's latest mix gets deep dark and pounding from San Diego via the berghain sound. Also if you didn't get a chance grab Ted Lane's progressive quiet storm Beginning of the End it's still up for grabs. Interview wise there is a great query up about Kode 9's new album up at LWE. For the LCD Soundsystem fans Pitchfork has an introspective of all the LCD's releases. They are playing there last shows at Madison Square Garden, wish i could be there. Pär Grindvik has a new label coming out, check XLR8R for the scoop and a new video for label/track Sinister above. Speaking of new tracks Burial has a new ethereal bass tracks over at URB. Looks like Global Communication have a stellar mix of tracks that have influenced them on NRK's Back in the box mix series, check the track listing at RA. Last up is a mix by Hessle Audio's Pangea a stellar mix weaving in and out of old in new on the bass tip on FACT's superb mix series.